

CONDITIONS OF LAB REPORTING

- The reported results are for information and interpretation of the referring doctor only.
- It is presumed that the tests performed on the specimen belong to the patient; named or identified.
- Results of tests may vary from laboratory to laboratory and also in some parameters from time to time for the same patient.
- Should the results indicate an unexpected abnormality, the same should be reconfirmed.
- Only such medical professionals who understand reporting units, reference ranges and limitations of technologies should interpret results.
- This report is not valid for medico-legal purpose.
- Neither Lucid, nor its employees/representatives assume any liability, responsibility for any loss or damage that may be incurred by any person as a result of presuming the meaning or contents of the report.

CONDITIONS OF RADIOLOGY REPORTING

- Subtle findings/ abnormalities may not always be apparent on imaging/ radiography/ sonography.
- Very often imaging/ radiography/ sonography findings will need to be correlated with other investigative modalities and diagnosis established after an appropriate overview and in conjunction with clinical evaluation.
- Imaging/ radiography/ sonography cannot be a final statement on your health condition and as such cannot be presumed or assumed to be the final word on the diagnosis.
- Lucid medical diagnostics will not be liable for any decision taken by an appropriate medical expert on any treatment based on this report.
